Harry Skeggs is a multiple award-winning wildlife photographer, artist, and adventurer. In the spirit of conservation, he captures the fragile beauty of wildlife and nature in the most remote corners of the seven continents in his iconic images. In addition to being featured in prestigious magazines such as National Geographic Traveler, Harry's photographs are exhibited in major galleries around the world.

wildlife, travel, and different cultures*

- ▶ Young award-winning photographer Harry Skeggs creates a stunningly beautiful appeal to protect our planet in this coffee table book
- ▶ Featuring more than one hundred of Skegg's best and most iconic pieces, along with previously unpublished photographs
- ▶ Foreword by Levison Wood, plus quotes and contributions from prominent members of the art world (such as Sir David Attenborough)

Fascinated by the art of photography from a young age, Vincent Lagrange learned the creativity and technical skills he needed to make his dreams reality. In 2022, Vincent's work was recognized internationally when his portrait of a sphynx cat was featured on the cover of National Geographic. Vincent has also authored an international book of dog portraits, published by teNeues.

- ▶ Striking portraits that have a special way of bringing animals closer to us, as individuals similar to human beings
- ▶ Extraordinary staging: animals outside their habitat – these photographs really bring out the character traits and distinctive features of these creatures here
- ▶ The beauty of animals and the importance of protecting them are the main themes of this coffee table book
